CONFERENCE

The Defence of French by Robin Adamson, Honorary Research Fellow at UWA.

In her last book The Defence of French Robin Adamson traces the history of language defence in France and describes the particularities of the most strongly-defended of European languages: Can a world language like French really be in crisis? These are all the questions Robin Adamson will treat in the conference, in English and French!

“Fete de la musique”

Jun 2007

Alliance Française
de Perth

FETE DE LA MUSIQUE

La Fête de la musique est l'un des événements culturels les plus populaires en France. Créée en 1982, l'initiative de la fête de la musique s'est peu à peu étendue aux autres pays. En 2007, elle sera célébrée dans quelques 340 villes dont... PERTH, pour la première fois!

One of the most popular cultural events in France is "La Fête de la musique". Only one day a year, usually on June 21, amateurs and professional musicians perform free concerts on the streets. "La fête de la musique" was created in France in 1982 and little by little has spread to other countries. In 2007, this celebration of music will take place in 340 towns worldwide, including PERTH, for the first time ever!

>On Thursday 21 June from 7 pm until 11 pm
 >Bal Folk, with "The Last Five Coins"
 >at Cottesloe Tennis Club (Corner Napier and Broome streets, Cottesloe)
 >FREE ENTRY- Food and drinks for sale (no byo).

Please Note: RSVP asap (9386 7921) and please do not wear high heels on d-day!

Are you a musician? You are welcome to play your song at the « Fête de la musique ». For more information, please contact the Alliance Française de Perth at least 10 days before the event.
