

Art exhibition

The Alliance Française is proud to host an art exhibition

“LES FEUILLES”

from Judith Roche

Judith's art practice focuses on the natural world, and the work in Les Feuilles incorporates leaves in the printmaking and painting techniques. In this way, the leaves are used to highlight their diversity, beauty and significance. Leaves are vital components of the ecosystems that sustain us and can also signal early warning of environmental degradation. The role of artists in raising issues in contemporary society was the subject of Judith's PhD research and, in addition to her professional art practice, she is an Adjunct Lecturer, Creative Industries, at ECU, Bunbury campus.

The Dinner Guest (L'invité) 3 Dec–9 Dec

After being unemployed for three years, Gérard (Daniel Auteuil) accepts a job in Indonesia. He invites his 'team leader' to dinner, but as his wife Colette (Valérie Lemerrier) has no culinary skills, his neighbour Alexandre (Thierry L'Hermitte) comes to the rescue. After a series of hilarious mishaps and misunderstandings, Gérard and Colette welcome their dinner guest. It's sheer joy watching three of France's most talented and versatile actors in top form. Directed by: Laurent Bouhnik. 80min · M · In French with subtitles

Molière 24 Dec–30 Dec

In 1644, at 22 years of age, Jean-Baptiste Poquelin (Romain Duris), aka Molière, was forced to spend some time in a debtor's prison after his touring company became bankrupt. He is rescued by the bumbling aristocrat Monsieur Jourdain (Fabrice Luchini), who smuggles a disguised Molière into his chalet so that Molière can teach him the finer points of acting. Directed by: Laurent Tirard. 120min · PG · In French with subtitles
